SANDAKAN: The Domestic Trade and Consumer Affairs Ministry's (KPDNHEP) office here has acted on 154 cases involving various offences under the Control of Supplies Act 1961, since January this year.

KPDNHEP Sandakan Branch Chairman Mohamad Hashim said RM234,533.47 worth of goods were seized from 7,566 premises.

"The compounds imposed totalled RM100,329. Government revenue from the sale of the seized goods amounted to RM7,282," he told reporters here Saturday.

Earlier, the KPDNHEP disposed of 7,117 uncensored CDs, VCDs and DVDs worth RM71,170. He said the remainder, after the sale of the seized items, were donated to Sandakan Vocational College.

"KPDNHEP will continue to hold integrated operations with other agencies such as Immigration, Marine, Health, Customs and Royal Malaysia Police," he added.
