

Ministry seizes fake corsets worth RM17,000

JOHOR BARU: Enforcers from the Johor branch of the Domestic Trade and Consumer Affairs Ministry seized 147 fake corsets of a popular brand worth more than RM17,000.

Enforcement chief Zubir Hamsa said the items were seized during an operation on Tuesday at seven premises in Pandan and Bandar Baru Uda between 7pm and 1am.

He added that the operation was made following intelligence work by the ministry over the last two weeks after receiving complaints from brand owner, cosmetics entrepreneur Nur Sajat.

"The premises we raided were found to be selling counterfeit corsets featuring the brand name Let's Cantik," he said here yesterday.

Zubir added that the ministry also recorded statements from owners of the seven premises following the operation.

"Traders are advised to adhere to regulations, and not be involved in selling or supplying fake goods," he said, adding that consumers must also be vigilant when buying goods to make sure it was authentic.
